Stock Hill Country House Hotel & Restaurant

What a summer for wet weather, but a very good reason to start planning a relaxing break before winter really sets in.

A few days away before the hectic Christmas festivities or a calming short break following New Year celebrations. Whatever your need come and visit Stock Hill, where you can fully recharge your batteries for the year ahead.

This Winter Season, we recommend a quintessentially British country house break with us here at Stock Hill that is guaranteed to put you in warm spirits for the cold months ahead. A roaring log fire and award-winning dining combined with country house comfort is all you need.

Our new winter rates are now available, effective from the 1st November 2009 until 1st April 2010(excluding Christmas, New Year, Easter and Bank Holiday weekends and other special days).

For those who enjoy shopping therapy, may we suggest a visit to Bath, Salisbury or Clarks village, Street for your Christmas shopping or post New Year sales. Alternatively we are conveniently situated near several National Trust properties and gardens for those who enjoy history, nature and walking. Following your chosen activity return to the hotel for a relaxing evening with canapés followed by a gourmet dinner prepared by Master Chef owner, Peter Hauser.
